Why do you want to become a donor?

“Because I want to help you. I know several who have received donations and I want to spread the joy that they have experienced. I want to donate to help others who need it.”

Donorletter translated

Dear future parent/parents

I have chosen to be an egg donor, because I would like to give other the big experience of being parents.

To give other that big gift, means a lot to me - and something I have to do.

I hope you get a wonderful life.

All the love

Your egg donor
